

A new star has been born.
Something out there eats the stories of stars.
There is no way to turn back now.

Three weeks into a six-week journey to Dark Feeder territory, Captain Juno Reyes and the crew of the Wayfarer are escorting more than cargo — they're guarding Vess-Sol, a newborn star sung into being by four hundred years of K'tharr grief.

Nest, the sentient marble who helped sing her to life, can hear Vess-Sol learning to speak across the dark. But the Dark Feeders don't consume stars. They consume the stories about them — and a story is exactly what Vess-Sol is about to become.

For fans of Becky Chambers, Douglas Adams, and Ann Leckie.
